Article 4 Scope of the Mandate Contract

- 4.1 Under this Contract, the BoD member is entrusted with the management of the Company, having the tasks, duties and responsibilities established by law and the Articles of Incorporation.
- 4.2 The liabilities of the BoD member are governed by law, as such may be amended during the Mandate Contract, including by the law applicable to public enterprises, the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, and the provisions of this Mandate Contract. To fulfil this Mandate Contract, the BoD member shall, within the limits of duties and competences of BoD members, perform all necessary acts to manage the Company in the interest of the Company, and to fulfil the Company's scope of activity, and shall exercise the mandate with loyalty, in the Company's interest, in a prudent and diligent manner of a good manager.

Article 5 Rights and obligations of BoD member

5.1 BoD Member Rights

- 5.1.1 BoD member is entitled to a remuneration consisting of a fixed monthly allowance.
- 5.1.2 BoD member is entitled to an insurance for professional liability, concluded by the Company, and such shall not be deducted from the allowance due to the BoD member.
- 5.1.3 BoD member is entitled to compensation in the event of revocation of the mandate without just cause. In relation to Article 8.5, "just cause" within the meaning of this Article, the specification being non-limiting, represents the failure by the BoD member to fulfill or properly fulfill any legal obligation or any obligation under this contract, and the unjustified refusal to conclude addenda to this contract to reflect changes occurred by operation of law. Revocation with "just cause" is also the situation where the key performance indicators are not met at the minimum level approved by the GSM, as well as in the situation where the BoD member refuses to assume the key performance indicators and their fulfillment at the minimum level approved by the GSM, refusing to properly conclude an addendum to the Mandate Contract. In the event of revocation without just cause of BoD member:
 - a) BoD member shall be entitled to receive from the Company an indemnity amounting to not more than monthly net fixed allowances;
 - b) payment of such amount as compensation shall be made by the Company no later than 60 calendar days of the date of GSM Resolution on revocation, if the decision is not challenged. The BoD member agrees and accepts that this compensation is the only remedy he/she is entitled to, in the event of his/her revocation without just cause.

BoD member is entitled to compensation in the event of unjustified revocation, except for the situations provided for in Article 13 paragraph (5), Article 30 paragraph (33) of Government Emergency Ordinance no. 109/2011 and Article VII paragraph (2) of Law no. 187/2023 amending and supplementing Government Emergency Ordinance no. 109/2011 on corporate governance of public enterprises.

- 5.1.4 In the event BoD member challenges in court the revocation decision issued by the Company, the appellant declares that he/she definitively and irrevocably waives any interest and penalties related to the claimed principal right, except for legal costs.
- 5.1.5 BoD member is entitled to access any information related to the Company, in compliance with the confidentiality obligations and the provisions related to access to restricted information, and classified national information.
- 5.1.6 BoD member may benefit, together with the other BoD members, in compliance with law, of a expert advice for substantiating/reasoning of decision to be taken within the Board, by GMS approval.
- 5.1.7 BoD member is entitled to benefit from the similar indemnity and benefit package, including medical services and/or medical insurance, as the ones concluded by the Company for the employees (if applicable).
- 5.1.8 In exceptional situations, when the Company interest requires such, BoD member may request the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders/Associates.

5.2 BoD Member Obligations

- 5.2.1 BoD member shall develop a proposal for the Management Component of the Governance Plan, in order to achieve the financial and non-financial performance indicators, within the term provided by Article 30 para. (1) of OUG 109/2011, to analyze and approve the Governance Plan supplemented with the Management Component under the conditions and within the terms provided by law.

- 6.2.4 The Company shall pay to the BoD member the compensation provided in Article 5.1.3, items a and b.

Article 7 Liabilities of the Parties

- 7.1 Non-fulfilment and/or inappropriate performance of obligations undertaken by any party to this Mandate Contract shall incur the liability of the party in default.
- 7.2 BoD member shall be liable for the culpable failure to comply with:
 - (i) the obligation to fulfill the Governance Plan, in order to achieve the objectives contained therein and to fulfill the financial and non-financial Performance Indicators;
 - (ii) the provisions of this Mandate Contract;
 - (iii) the provisions of the resolutions adopted by the Company's GMS;
 - (iv) the provisions of the Articles of Association.
- 7.3 BoD member shall not breach the obligation of prudence and diligence and shall not be liable if, at the time of making a business decision, he/she is reasonably entitled to consider that he/she is acting in the best interests of the Company and on the basis of adequate information.
- 7.4 BoD member shall be liable for any damage suffered by the Company as a result of the culpable failure by him/her to fulfill the duties and obligations provided for in this Mandate Contract, the Articles of Association, the Rules of Organization and Operation of the Board of Directors, the GMS Resolutions or the Legal Framework, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

Article 8 Contract Amendment, Termination and Renewal

- 8.1 This contract is amended by agreement of the parties expressed through an addendum concluded in compliance with the substantive and formal conditions provided by law upon its conclusion or, as the case may be, as a result of subsequent legislative amendments likely to affect the contractual provisions.

8.2 Amendment of the contract to include clauses regarding the key performance indicators approved under GEO 109/2011 shall be made under the conditions and deadlines provided by law.

8.3 The Contract shall terminate:

- a) upon expiry of the contract term, except if renewed in accordance with the law,
- b) by waiver of the mandate by the BoD member, with a 30-calendar-days-notice from Company notification;

Article 12 Remuneration Variable Component Non-payment/Reimbursement

- 12.1 If payment of the remuneration variable component becomes excessively onerous due to exceptional circumstances the extent of which was not and could not have been foreseen by the parties when concluding the mandate contract, the public enterprise shall be entitled to request a reasonable and equitable adaptation of the mandate contract. If the parties do not agree on the adaptation of the contract, the public enterprise shall be entitled to notify the court in accordance with the provisions of Article 1271 of Law no. 287/2009 on the Civil Code, republished, as subsequently amended and supplemented;
- 12.2 The mandate contract shall also be adapted, if payment of the remuneration variable component endangers the capitalization of the public enterprise;
- 12.3 If the variable component is granted based on incomplete or incorrect data, the BoD member shall refund the undue amounts, and in the case contrary, the public enterprise shall file a reimbursement action.

Article 13 Confidentiality Clauses during and after Mandate

- 13.1 The term "Confidential Information" means and includes any information regarding the Company's business that is not public. Without limitation to the foregoing, confidential information includes:
- a) contractual terms and any information regarding the Company's business partners, customers, agents, employees, contractors, investors or suppliers, as well as the conditions under which the Company carries out economic activities with each of such persons;
 - b) any business, collaboration or development plans of the Company on a national and international level or, as the case may be, non-public details of such plans;
 - c) information regarding the Company's future plans, including, but not limited to, plans to expand to geographical areas, market segments or services, any information that could be customarily included in the Company's financial statements, including, but not limited to, the amount of the Company's assets, liabilities, net worth, revenues, expenses or net income, except for that information the disclosure of which is authorized according to the Company's internal regulations;

- d) any other information acquired by the BoD member during the exercise of his/her mandate, which could reasonably be considered to reflect vulnerabilities of the Company;
- e) any information received by the Company from third parties who are themselves under a confidentiality obligation notified to the Company;
- f) any information derived from all of the above;
- g) any copies of the information mentioned above, except where such copies are requested by a court or another public authority, under the conditions provided by law.

13.2 Use and Disclosure of Confidential Information

13.2.1 The BoD member acknowledges that he/she has acquired and/or will acquire Confidential Information during or in connection with the exercise of his/her mandate within the Company, as well as that the use of such Confidential Information, for any purpose, by himself/herself or by other persons, would seriously prejudice the Company, including by violating some of the Company's legal obligations. Therefore, the BoD member accepts that, directly or indirectly, at any time, during the duration of the contract concluded with the Company or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this contract will terminate, he/she shall not use or cause the use of any Confidential Information in connection with any activities or businesses, except for the public economic activities of the Company, and shall not disclose or cause the disclosure of any Confidential Information to any natural person, company, association, group or any other entity, unless such disclosure has been specifically authorized in writing by the Company, or unless required by any applicable law, or ordered by a decision of a competent court or arbitration court, or by any public authority that is authorized by law to receive such information.

13.2.2 Additionally, the BoD member undertakes to promptly notify the Company of any act of a court or arbitration court, or of another public authority, on the nature of those specified in the previous paragraph, so that the Company may adopt, under the law, protective measures or another appropriate solution, and shall further provide any assistance that the Company may reasonably request to guarantee such measures or solutions. If the protective measures mentioned in the previous paragraph are not sufficient, the BoD member shall provide only that section of the Confidential Information that is legally required by the public authority in question and shall make all reasonable and legally justified efforts to secure the confidential treatment of any Confidential Information so disclosed.

13.3 Use and Disclosure of Third-Party information

13.3.1 The BoD member understands that the Company may, from time-to-time, receive information from third parties, which the Company is required to treat confidentially and use only for limited purposes, ("Third Party Information").

13.3.2 The BoD member agrees that, directly or indirectly, at any time during the term of the contract concluded with the Company, or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this contract terminates, he/she shall not use or cause the use of any Third Party Information, except where permitted by a written agreement concluded between the Company and the respective third party and except where required by any applicable law or by the decision of a competent court or arbitration court or by any other public authority which by law is authorized to receive such information. Additionally, the BoD member undertakes to promptly notify the Company of any act of a court or arbitration court, or of another public authority, on the nature of those specified in the previous paragraph, so that the Company may adopt, under the conditions of the law, protective measures or another appropriate solution. If the protection measures are not sufficient, the BoD member shall only provide the legally required section of Third Party Information.
